Dear Ms. Della Rocco:

Regarding descriptions of disbursements reported on schedule B, we have amended our report to clarify the purpose of these transactions. "Political Souvenirs" refers to miscellaneous political memorabilia such as commemorative coins provided to donors and supporters, and are not allocable to any federal candidate.

Regarding reimbursements to staff for apparent travel and subsistence in amounts that exceed $500, no further itemization is required.

Regarding disbursements with the purpose "per diem", those disbursements were not made from petty cash and no memo items are required.

Regarding 48 Hour Notices filed during this reporting period, we have updated the corresponding schedule E to correlate with the 48 Hour Notice which was filed correctly.

None of the coordinated party expenditures exceed the coordinated party limits. Our report has been amended accordingly.

I trust this response will meet your requirements; however, please feel free to contact me if you have any remaining questions.

Sincerely,
Anthony W Parker
Treasurer
Republican National Committee
